

Tim Moore, Freshman
 Stroudsburg, Pa./Notre Dame
 Major: Business Administration

Profile: One of six freshmen to join the program this year...Saw action in four matches...will look to solidify the middle to lower tier of the lineup...2008 (Freshman Year): Played in two singles and two doubles matches...won both of his matches in the Royals' 9-0 victory over Keystone on April 14; teamed with sophomore Kevin Whitman to defeat Shane Conway and Keith Garubba, 8-0, at the number three doubles, then posted a 6-0, 6-3 win over Sam Donna at the number six singles...in the first singles match of his career, put up a valiant effort in a three-set loss to Jeffrey Fasoli of the United States Merchant Marine Academy, 6-4, 4-6, 0-1 (10-12).

Dan Parisi, 5-6, 135, Freshman
 Howell, N.J./Howell
 Major: Exploratory

Profile: Picked up considerable experience as a freshman, seeing action in eight singles and nine doubles matches...2008 (Freshman Year): Posted a 4-4 record in singles in three different positions in the lineup: was 1-0 at four,

2-1 at five, and 1-3 at six...three of his eight singles matches went three sets; he won two of those three-set matches, defeating David Boe of King's College, 2-6, 6-4, 10-8, and Billie Weiss of Goucher, 3-6, 6-2, 1-0 (12-10)...played a majority of his doubles matches at the number three spot in the lineup and finished with a 6-3 record...played eight of his nine doubles matches with fellow freshman Kevin Kelleher; the duo posted a 5-3 record...after losing his first singles match of his career, won four straight starting with a 6-3, 6-1 victory over Tyler Rush of Susquehanna and ending with a 6-1, 6-0 loss to Jeremy Goldberg of Oneonta St...won his first five doubles matches of the season.

Steven Russo, Sophomore
 Scranton, Pa./Bishop Hannan
 Major: Communication

Profile: Two-year letterman...has seen action in 27 singles and 25 doubles matches in his career...holds a career record of 11-16 in singles (.407) and 10-15 in doubles (.400)...has played four different positions in the singles lineup and all three in doubles...2008 (Sophomore Year): Tri-captain...went 4-10 in singles and 3-9 in doubles...played nine of his 14 singles matches at the number five position in the lineup...won of his final seven matches of the season and two of his three doubles matches...in his first and only match at the number one position in the lineup, defeated Jonathan Schultz of Baptist Bible, 6-3, 6-2, on April 17...played all 12 of his doubles matches with fellow sophomore Kevin Whitman...competed in two events during the fall schedule...went 1-1 in singles and 0-2 in doubles at the season-opening Goucher Invitational on September 15-16...dropped a hard-fought 8-6 decision in doubles against Andrew Gogzwon and Adam Toth in Scranton's 7-2 victory over Ramapo on October 20 at the Poly Hi Tennis Courts...2007 (Freshman Year): Posted a record of 7-6 in singles and 7-6 in doubles...led team in singles victories and tied for the team-lead for most wins in doubles...won three of his first four matches and two of his final three matches in singles...posted a victory in both singles and doubles to help the Royals post wins over Hood (9-0, March 12), Eastern Nazarene (5-4, March 13), DeSales (7-2, March 28), Keystone (8-1, April 2) and Lycoming (6-3, April 14)...won both of his opening round singles and doubles matches in the Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Corporation (MASCAC) tournament before bowing out with losses in the next round; defeated Matt Dunn of King's in singles, 6-3, 6-2, and teamed with Whitman to down Kirk McAuliffe and Cory Prescott of Susquehanna, 8-4, in doubles.

Awards & Honors

Landmark Conference Academic Honor Roll (2008)