

Danielle Wylie, 5-4, Freshman Schnecksville, Pa./Parkland...One of three freshmen on the roster...posted a winning record in both singles and doubles...sister of sophomore Deirdre Wylie...majoring in biology...2008 (Freshman Year): Made an immediate contribution in her first season with the program...posted a 9-5 record in singles and a 10-5 mark in doubles...teamed with fellow freshman Kelly Costello to earn second-team all-Landmark Conference honors in doubles in a ballot conducted among the conference's head coaches...led the Royals in doubles wins and was second in singles victories...ended the season by winning her final three singles matches, including a 4-6, 7-6 (7-4), 10-5 victory over Kerry McKinley in the Royals' 6-3 loss to Moravian in the championship match of the Landmark Conference tournament...had a hand in two points in Scranton's 6-3 win over Catholic University in the semifinals of the Landmark Conference tournament with a 6-3, 6-2 victory over Mary Wargo and teamed with Kelly Costello to defeat Wargo and Julie Crone, 8-1...played three different positions in the singles lineup: was 1-0 at three, 2-4 at four, and 6-1 at five...played 14 of her 15 doubles matches with Kelly Costello; the pair posted a 10-4 record (1-2 at the number two position in the lineup and 9-2 at number three)...won all three of her singles and doubles matches during the fall portion of the schedule...defeated Elizabeth Walpole of King's, 6-2, 6-2; Jessica Souchick of Lycoming, 6-2, 6-0; and downed Laura Miller of Messiah, 6-3, 6-3...teamed with Costello in doubles and recorded wins over Walpole and Courtney Wilson of King's, 8-3; Kirstie McKeever and Souchick of Lycoming, 8-0; and Steph Knepper and Miller of Messiah, 8-2.

Deirdre Wylie, 5-4, Sophomore Schnecksville, Pa./Parkland...Two-year letter-winner...has played a combined 54 matches in her career...holds a career record of 11-16 (.407) in singles and 16-11 (.593) in doubles...older sister of freshman Danielle Wylie...majoring in biology...2008 (Sophomore Year): Posted a 5-10 record in singles and 7-7 mark in doubles...played a majority of her singles matches in the upper tier of the lineup, posting a 2-2 record at number one and 3-8 at two...was 4-2 in singles against Landmark Conference opponents...played all three doubles position and went 1-2 at one, 5-5 at two, and 1-0 at three...won her final two doubles matches of the season; teamed with Gretchen Sullivan to defeat Corinne Alcorn and Caitlin Dunn, 8-4, in a 6-3 victory over Catholic University in the semifinals of the Landmark Conference tournament; came back four days later to defeat Brittany Popaca and Jennel Yelito, 8-6, in a 6-3 loss to Moravian in the championship...posted a 1-2 record in singles and 2-1 mark in doubles during the fall portion of the schedule...posted a 6-0, 6-1 victory over Rebecca Reynolds and teamed with Danielle Red to score an 8-2 win over Amiee Snyder and Reynolds in Scranton's 9-0 victory against Lycoming on September 22 at the Poly Hi Tennis Courts...partnered with sophomore Beth Lappin to post an 8-2 victory over Annie Gotchel and Erin Kriner of Messiah at the number three doubles in the Royals' 6-3 victory on September 24 at Poly Hi...2006 (Freshman Year): finished with six victories in singles competition, which tied junior Gretchen Sullivan and freshman Caroline Curtin for the team-lead...played all 12 of her singles matches at the number three position in the lineup...won four of her final seven matches in singles and six of her final eight doubles matches...teamed with Gretchen Sullivan to post a team-best 9-4 record in doubles, all of which were played at the number two position in the lineup...advanced to the semifinals of the Flight 2 doubles at Middle Atlantic Conference individual championships by defeating Aggie Kwon and Amanda Fontana of Juniata, 8-1, and Amery Lim and Lauren Paich of Lycoming, 8-5, before dropping an 8-2 decision to eventual champions Emily Swarr and Alice Yu of Elizabethtown.