Program Revision
Changes in Concentration

Home Dean: CAS CPS
xx SOM GRAD

Concentration: Enterprise Resources Planning (ERP)

Program: MBA (on campus and online)

Nature of revision:

To add Enterprise Resources Planning (ERP) as a new concentration to the MBA programs offered by the Kania School of Management

Rationale for revision:

We have recently added the ERP Online Certificate Program, to the Kania School Graduate programs. I believe the courses in the certificate program will be attractive to the MBA students also. Once they take three or four of these courses they will be eligible to participate in the SAP Consultant certification boot camp that may lead to the certification as a "SAP Consultant". The inclusion of this concentration will also make out MBA Programs attractive to more students.

Will the revision have an impact on the core curriculum? Xx No Yes (indicate impact) NO

Will the revisions have any impact on another department? xx No (No) Yes
If yes, indicate the impact on and the response of the affected department:

Will the revisions require allocation/reallocation of University resources?

No (No) Yes (indicate resources needed for revision below)
