Program Revision
Changes within Major

Home Dean:  CAS  CPS  SOM
 GRAD  DHC

Program: French

Nature of
revision:

“French major” should be changed to “French and Francophone Cultural Studies major. The new major with its strong cultural component is in line with national trends and will better serve the needs of the student population at the University of Scranton

Rationale for
revision:

The existing major lists a sequence of courses which an excessively specific focus which provide an incomplete picture of France and the Francophone world today. The Department of World Languages and Cultures recognizes the need to promote a cultural studies major with a strong multicultural component in order to widen the field of critical inquiry for students.

Will the revision have an impact on the core curriculum?  No  Yes (indicate impact)

- Deletion of courses with a century by century approach to literature
- Revision of existing course title and content descriptions
- Creation of two Interdisciplinary courses (see below)

Will the revision have any impact on another department or program?  No  Yes

If yes, indicate below the impact and response of affected department or programs.

- Two new interdisciplinary courses are being created:
- FREN 323 E/ 323 F(Topics in Francophone Cinema and Culture, to be cross-listed as a Women’s Studies Course)
  - FREN 325 E/ 325 F (French-Francophone Politics and Society, to be cross listed as a Political Science course)

Will the revisions require allocation/reallocation of University resources?

X No     Yes (indicate resources needed for revision below)
