Course Title: Christian Ethics

Course Number: T/RS 335Z Date: 2-05-2009

Home Dean: CAS CPS SOM GRAD DHC

Nature of revision:

Old Title: Christian Ethics
New Title: Virtue, Vice and Christian Ethics

Old description: This course will discuss the practice of the Christian moral life in contemporary society. The Christian virtues will be distinguished and related to selected problems arising in our lives as private individuals, as member os families, as professionals, and as citizens. Other topics to be treated include: evil, sin, Christian liberty, Christian perfection, relativism and humanism-

New description: This course will consider virtues and vices from the perspective of the Christian vision, comparing them to other popular visions in the ancient and/or modern world. Other related topics to be treated include human freedom, action, happiness, sin, and moral truth.

Rationale for revision:

Both the course description and title needs clearer differentiation from T/RS 220, (Moral Theology) and T/RS 231 (Social Ethics – to be retitled “God and the Good Society”).

Will the revision have an impact on the core curriculum? No Yes (indicate impact)
